THE PROJECT IS A BOARD GAME BASED ON FEMINISTS' LIFESTYLES IN PITTSBURGH IN THE 20TH CENTURY, FROM THE 1970S TO THE 1980S.

MOST OF THE HISTORICAL INFORMATION, OPINIONS, AND FACTS ARE FROM ALLEGHENY FEMINIST, A 1976 PUBLICATION THAT WAS LATER TRANSFORMED INTO NETWORK NEWS AS THE ORGANIZATION THAT PUBLISHED IT, THE PITTSBURGH FEMINIST NETWORK, GREW MORE PROMINENT. IT WAS AN INCREDIBLE SPARK IN PITTSBURGH'S HISTO-RY, BUT IT STOPPED IN THE EARLY 1980S BECAUSE OF ITS "OLD AGE."

THE SPOT WAS DIRECTLY INSPIRED BY SIGNIFICANT PLACES IN PITTS-BURGH. THE PROJECT ALSO RECORDED MANY PLACES THAT WERE AL-MOST LOST AS TIME PASSED.

THE GAME IS DESIGNED TO FOSTER A SENSE OF UNITY AND SHARED GOALS, WITH NO WINNER OR LOSER, ONLY COOPERATION. BE-YOND THIS FUNDAMENTAL RULE, THE GAMEPLAY IS OPEN-END-ED. PLAYERS CAN CHOOSE TO CONVERGE OR EXPLORE THE MAP. EACH ROUND, A DICE ROLL DETERMINES YOUR MOVEMENT, AND REACHING A SPECIAL SPOT PROMPTS DRAWING A CARD.

IT IS ALSO A JOURNEY INTO THE LIVES OF FEMINISTS DURING THE HEIGHT OF THE FEMINIST MOVEMENT IN PITTSBURGH. IT'S ABOUT EXPERIENCING THE JOY OF RECLAIMING OUR RIGHTS, THE THRILL OF MEETING LIKE-MINDED INDIVIDUALS, AND THE SIMPLE PLEASURE OF ENJOYING THE CITY DESPITE THE SOCIETAL CONSTRAINTS WOMEN FACED HALF A CENTURY AGO.
